

Curriculum vitae

PD Dr. Vera Schlindwein

Education

2013	Venia legendi in Geophysics, University of Bremen Thesis: Seismicity of ultraslow spreading mid-ocean ridges
1998	Ph.D. in Geophysics, University of Bremen Thesis: Architecture and evolution of the continental crust of East Greenland from integrated geophysical studies
1994	Diploma in Geophysics, LMU München Thesis: Spectral analysis of harmonic tremor signals at Mt. Semeru volcano, Indonesia

Professional activities

Since 2014	Senior Scientist at AWI, Priv.-Doz. University of Bremen
2006-2017	Emmy Noether Programme of DFG, Head of Junior research group MOVE
Since 2003	Scientist at AWI
2000-2003	Scientist BGR Hannover, Germany
1999-2000	Marie Curie Fellowship of the European Commission, University of Durham, UK
1998	Postdoctoral Scholarship of the German Academic Exchange Service, University of Durham, UK
1995-1998	Scientist at AWI